CLASS SONG

Oh Ellsworth High we're leaving you,
Fond Memories will remain,
We've reached our goal, many thanks to you,
Through you, we all have gained.
The Class of '41 now says,
Good-bye dear friends to you,
And may God bless you one and all
We hold our faith in you.

GRACE SULLIVAN, '41

“SENIORS FAREWELL”

We the Class of '41

Are here to bid farewell

To the friends we've made in the last four years

And the school we love so well.

In parting we haven't much to say

Our work we've never shirked;

You make friends, then you go away

To new and different work

The happy years, the happy days,

We know we'll not forget;

So it's first farewell and not good-bye

To the many we have met.

So here's lots of luck, and lots of joy,

To the friends who will take our place;

Hold up your end—you Seniors to be

And our school will win this race.

To the faculty, our guides and learning posts,

Many thanks we give today,

We'll make them proud of us, their boasts,

They'll look back with happy memories of the graduates of today.

CLASS WILL

As we the Class of 1941 leave Ellsworth Memorial High School, we deem it fit to leave the following testament of our affection for our alma mater:

Patricia Grant bequeaths her Melrose Indians to the U. S. History class. May they live long enough to survive them.

Frances McCutcheon leaves to Peggy Brennan her luck in getting a job.

Julia Krawetz wills her dreamy eyes to Edith Blood. May they sparkle forever.

Harriet Slawecki relinquishes her bus trip to Warehouse Point so that Audrey Carter can take her seat. Don't let the driver down, Audrey.

To Mervin Waldron, Gordon Carter releases his undying desire to get on the honor roll. The way isn't an easy one, is it Gordon?

Edward Curtin gives his undevoted attention to his English class to Chancey Stoughton.

Agnes Whitehouse surrenders her ever deepening dimples to Elva Grant.

Gordon Dimlow donates his cooking ability to the cafeteria chefs. All underclassmen should hope for a change in the menu. Mr. Ordway does.

Alice Rittlinger leaves her bewitching smile and sparkling eyes to Kay Fetko. May they be used with great success.

Sherwood Waldron requests that his scholastic superiority be divided among his inferior underclassmates.

Francis Boldway leaves his ability to play the electric guitar to Colin MacKenzie. Don't forget the pick and bar when you plan to play Colin.

Blanche Belcher and Connie Boroski relinquish the care of the Washington Trip bus drivers to whoever wants it.

Ed Bourke offers his shyness to George Neelans. Let's hope there will not be a sudden change in character.

Leo Fiori respectfully bequeaths his dignified appearance to John Gahr. Don't let him down.

Larry Grennan contributes his curly locks to Robert Jillson. Long may they wave.

Ed Kasheta surrenders his ability to run the mile to Clinton Whitehouse. Please don't break training for Mr. Greer's sake.

Justin Kizis relinquishes his dancing ability to some undergraduate who can stand the punishment of jitterbugging.

We respectfully charge Mr. Magnuson with our former task of caring for incoming freshmen and next year's noble seniors. Take care of them.

Jack Rauschenbach contributes his ability for caring for his books to Eddie Grigely. Please keep them in good condition.

George Bancroft is willing to allow Ray Steitz the privilege of using his basketball shoes. May his success be as great as George's so he can fill them out.

Ruth Bastien leaves her movie star appearance to some pretty undergraduate who thinks she can succeed her.

Leonard Thrall bequeaths his ability to govern and control the oncoming seniors to some able junior.

Joe Racz surrenders his ability to handle the finances to the senior treasurer. Kindly keep track of all the funds.

Anna Mae Turner and Joe Grigely will be recipients of Norma Wilder's and Frank Dodd's serenity. May they never get into trouble.

Porter Collins bequeaths his history book and arguments to go along with it to a noble orator, Herb Tschummi.

Charles Ward leaves his Park Avenue appearance to Joe Vozek.

Richard Wall surrenders his love of water to Arthur Burnham. Don't get too wet.

Eleanor Pola places "Babe" Maizon in Mr. Greer's care so that he may be kept in training.

Grace Sullivan and Pauline Gwynn will their golden voices to Hazel White and Beatrice Johnson. Don't get laryngitis.

Mary Spilka and Alice Zagorski leave their shorthand books to true model students.

Marie Reichle surrenders her appointment as the model citizen to next year's honorary senior.

To Eileen Schlichting, goes the job of finding a worthy substitute for Lydia Muzykiewz.

George Hall renounces his claim of the third period to Victor St. Martin so that he can catch up on lost sleep. Don't anyone disturb him.

Josephine Masiunas leaves her task on the yearbook staff to any Junior that thinks he can do as well.

Marjorie Mather and Adelaide McHugh will their harmonizing to anyone who can do as good a job as they did in the minstrel.

Buddy Neelans surrenders his knack of love making to his brother. Maybe it runs in the family.

Evelyn Nilsson and Louise Osborn transfer their dignity to anybody who is able to carry it.

Ed McGrath hands over his ferry ticket to cross the river to his brother. It will save walking, "Lefty."

Donnie Schlichting relinquishes his ability to throw the shot put to Dutch Leenders. Don't throw it too far.

Stanley Waldron releases his ability to do the Polka to Bill Cooper.

Jack Pease leaves his physique to Charles Steitz. Don't let yourself get run down.

Bob Grant relinquishes his place of entertainer of the Freshman-Sophomore parties to anyone who cares to be a great entertainer.

Martin Huehner leaves his ability to jump to Ray Grigley. Don't soar too high "Trapper."

Rose Balnius and Wanda Panek bequeath their jobs as official office workers of the night school to Emily Stryjeski and Eileen Norton. Now don't let Mr. Stoughton down.

Georgeanna Becker donates her rumba dancing to Billy Higgins. Watch your step, Bill.

Jeanette Bryant and Lottie MacKenzie bestow a book on dieting and a package of Rye Crisp to anyone who is willing to suffer with them.

Barbara Burnham relinquishes her high honor position to Ann Duffy. Don't slip, Ann.

Kay Cadder forsakes her brush and paints so Harold Flaherty may carry on.

Bill Enes wills his ever-growing stature to Tom Cadder.

Dexter Burnham hands over his job as care taker in the shop to Edward Grigely.

Phyllis Busher leaves her superior knowledge of driving to David Collins.

Mary Butenas charges Jerry King with her task of taking the absense slip to the office every morning.

Mary Cadder and Mary Plummer leave their quietness and shyness to Dorothy Simlar.

Jane Deming and Ann Sheridan offer their ability and their shorthand books to Eleanor Bastien.

Jean DeScalo leaves her slam book to whoever can bear the awful truth.

Shirley Enes abandons her pleasing personality to Gladys Coty.

Jean Grindle leaves her bashfulness to Eunice Potwin. Don't carry it too far Eunice.

Frank Kirshhof renounces his ability to get sick in Washington to anyone that can stand it.

Francis Lynch wills to Jimmy Callahan a track form worthy only of an Ellsworth man.

Pearl Mahoney donates her ability to chose hats to Betty Burnham. Betty, consider others when you purchase your hats.

Cecile Malone contributes her sprightly walk to Alma Joyner.

Here on the sixth day of June in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and forty-one, we, the President, Leonard Thrall; Vice-President, Donald Schlichting; Secretary, Martin Huehner; Treasurer, Joe Racz set our seal to this testimony and last will.

Signed and sealed and declared by the Class of 1941 of Ellsworth Memorial High School for their last will and testament in the presence of us who at its request have hereunto subscribed ourselves as witnesses on this sixth day of June, 1941.

CLASS HISTORY OF '41

TIME: 1960

PLACE: Ellsworth Memorial High School

PROFESSOR KNOW-IT-ALL—In charge of history class

Quiet Please. May I have your kind attention. It gives me great pleasure to discuss with you the Class of 1941, who entered this institution twenty-three years ago full of ambition in their endeavor to progress through their high school career honorably. In spite of the fact that they had to adjust themselves to the new school routine and their fellow classmates, they had to traverse through many storms before they achieved their goals as honorable Seniors.

To aid these students in their desire to become better acquainted, the Sophomores held a party in their honor. Patricia Grant displayed much artistic ability in the play production, "Admirable Crichton." After an interval of a few months, the class faced a very significant obligation—that of electing officers to lead them in the class policies. This group was elected to carry on the social and financial affairs of the group: President, Conrad Koblanski; Vice-President, Gordon Dimlow; Secretary, Ruth Bastien; Treasurer, Alice Rittlinger.

As the first year drew to a close, the members of the class gathered at Babb's Beach to end their first high school year in a cheerful manner.

Bearing all these facts in mind, this eminent group of students entered their Sophomore year at Ellsworth High School. To open their second year an election of class officers was held. The following members of the class received the honor of carrying on the duties of the class: President, Martin Huehner; Vice-President, Barbara Burnham; Secretary, Agnes Whitehouse; Treasurer, Ann Sheridan. The Class of 1941 had many athletically inclined students, such as: Jack Pease, Sherwood Waldron and Stanley Waldron who participated in basketball. With the aid of these boys the basketball team captured the C-D tournament. The Soccer Squad consisted of many remarkable Sophomores: John Rauchenbach, Stanley Waldron, William Enes, Donald Schlichting, Martin Huehner, Dexter Burnham, Jack Pease and Sherwood Waldron.

1939 was the first year that Ellsworth had an organized track team and the class of '41 was proud to have many of its boys on the team: Donald Schlichting, Leo Fiori, Martin Huehner, John Rauchenbach, Edward Kasheta, William Enes, Edward Bourke, Gordon Dimlow, and Francis Lynch were among those who participated in the track events. That year at Yale the track team won the State C. D. championship.

In the early part of May the class made a trip to the New York World's Fair. In my recent talk with one of the members who visited the fair at that time, he exclaimed that never has he seen lovelier flowers anywhere than there were at the New York World's Fair. "Come Out of The Kitchen," a play production which was presented at the high school auditorium attracted a large crowd, especially since Patricia Grant held the leading role.

Thus ends the first chapter in the history of the class of '41.

To open their second chapter successfully the class elected class officers. These worthy students were chosen: President, Gordon Dimlow; Vice-President, Leo Fiori; Secretary, Marie Reichle; Treasurer, Joseph Racz. At last the gala event of their entire school life was given, the Junior Promenade. The annual play production presented was "Nothing But the Truth." Many can still recall Porter Collins's efforts as the Bishop and Patricia Grant's attempts to make Leonard Thrall tell the truth, and last but not least the flirts—Marjorie Mather and Alice Rittlinger. Other important roles were taken by Phyllis Busher, Gordon Carter and Gordon Dimlow.

The Boys' Track Team consisted of the following Junior boys: Francis Lynch, Leo Fiori, Justin Kizis, Donald Schlichting, William Enes, Martin Huehner and Donald Schlichting, who again won the State title.

The Soccer Squad had a successful year under the direction of Coach Greer and with the cooperation of these boys: Sherwood Waldron, Stanley Waldron, Leo Fiori, Jack Pease, Edward Curtin, John Rauschenbach, Frank Dodd, Francis Lynch, Joseph Racz, Dexter Burnham, Donald Schlichting, Martin Huehner, William Enes, and George Bancroft.

Many eminent Juniors participated in basketball such as: Sherwood Waldron, Jack Pease, Stanley Waldron, Martin Huehner, Gordon Dimlow, and George Bancroft. The basketball team won the C. D. Championship for the second successive year.

After the long tedious struggle, the students reached their honorable positions as Seniors. They had the privilege to use the front steps and to be seated upon entry for a program. Again the election of class representatives were held. The following were elected: President, Leonard Thrall; Vice-President, Donald Schlichting; Secretary, Martin Huehner; Treasurer, Joseph Racz. The Seniors presented a Senior-get-together which enabled the underclassmen to intermingle and become acquainted with the upper classmen.

In the early fall "Big Hearted Herbert" was presented with Porter Collins in the leading role and Patricia Grant acting the part of his daughter. Other important roles were held by the following: Gordon Dimlow, Julia Krawetz and Gordon Carter. This was another means of raising funds toward the trip to Washington. A Senior Minstrel was given in the early part of April. Many may remember Justin Kizis's solo—Polly Wolly Doodle—we wonder if the audience found out what was behind the barn. Other outstanding performers were the endmen, Dexter Burnham, Francis Boldway and William Enes and the remarkable singers, Majorie Mather, Adelaide McHugh, Grace Sullivan, Pauline Gwynn, and Pearl Mahoney.

Many of the athletic associations and teams lost some of the outstanding boys and girls. These boys were active in basketball—Jack Pease, Martin Huehner, Gordon Dimlow, George Bancroft, Stanley and Sherwood Waldron. The basketball team won the C. D. tournament for the third successive year. The track team consisted of many eminent members, such as: Francis Lynch, Edward Kasheta, William Enes, Leo Fiori, Martin Huehner, Edward Curtin, Francis Boldway, John Rauschenbach, George Bancroft, Justin Kizis, Dexter Burnham, Gordon Dimlow, Donald Schlichting set a new record in discus and shot put. Three relay races were won by the Ellsworth boys and needless to say the Seniors contributed their bit.

With the aid of the following boys the Soccer Squad remained undefeated for that year: Leo Fiori, Stanley Waldron, Sherwood Waldron, William Enes, Frank Dodd, Donald Schlichting, Francis Lynch, John Rauchenbach, and Edward Curtin. The girls who participated in sports were Barbara Burnham, Eleanor Pola, Marie Reichle, Lydia Muzykiewicz, Agnes Whitehouse, Alice Zagorski and Phyllis Busher.

At last came the long anticipated trip to Washington—Train rides—Mount Vernon—Capital—White House—Lincoln Memorial—Cairo Hotel—and many other famous places gave the students an opportunity to experience traveling. The class of 1941 had as its honor students Barbara Burnham, Valedictorian and Alice Rittlinger, Salutatorian, respectfully.

Thus ends the history of the class of 1941.

I wish to recall the appreciation the class expressed toward their faculty and fellow students who made their years very pleasant at Ellsworth Memorial High School. Now students, books aside, history class dismissed.

CLASS PROPHECY

One evening while I was dining at the Rainbow Room in New York City, I accidentally met Edward McGrath, a world renowned traveler and explorer, who had just returned from an extensive expedition through India. Ed told me he had obtained a beautiful crystal which probably was made by some unknown artisan of the ancient world. "Come to my hotel room," he said, "and I will dig this marvelous piece of work out and we'll see if we can find the combination."

I replied, "Fine, we might be able to see what our one time classmates are doing in these days of super highways and glass houses."

"Say, that is a good idea," retorted Ed. "Let's get started on this crystal ball."

Well, we were busy for five minutes or so when several images came into view.

To our surprise and amazement we saw our classmates and their present occupations.

First of all we saw a huge network of candy factories stretching from coast to coast owned and operated by Barbara Burnham with Jack Pease acting as president and general manager. In Scantic, Connecticut, is the George Bancroft Broadcasting System operating on a frequency of 10,000 kilocycles communicating with every part of the world. On the fiftieth floor of the building which housed the system, we find Georgeanna Becker and Ruth Bastien teaching dancing to many present Ellsworth students. This great metropolis of Scantic has just erected a new theater. Patricia Grant and Porter Collins who have achieved fame by acting in numerous school plays, are playing the leads of a three act play written by that Pulitzer Prize winner Norma Wilder. Other features at this theater are those new Metropolitan stars Grace Sullivan, Pauline Gwynn and Pearl Mahoney; also a great attraction is the singing of Marge Mather and Adelaide McHugh, all known for their parts in the Senior Minstrel.

We see in that great city, which is the hub of the universe, a newspaper office with Dexter Burnham as Editor-in-Chief, who obtained his experience while reporting for "The Hartford Times." On his staff he has as photographers those candid kids Chick Huehner and Joc Racz, who have taken pictures of many interesting school events.

Frank Dodd and Len Thrall are owners and performers of a gigantic motorcycle circle with thrills and scares for everyone including themselves.

Bob Grant, Gordon Carter, and Ed Bourke, famous for their quality chickens, have pooled their interests and have become the poultry magnates of the world.

Each of the men has a private secretary who is one of those shorthand wizards, Mary Butenas, Blanche Belcher, and Connie Boroski.

Bill Enes and Jack Rauschenbach have joined the navy. Bill has formed a well known daredevil air squadron and Jack has become chief machinist of the entire Atlantic Navy.

Stanley and Sherwood Waldron have become masters of electricity while working for the Wapping Light and Power.

Larry Grennan, still living up to his reputation in smashing cars, is testing and crashing automobiles for the Broad Brook Motor Sales, which is under the supervision of Frank Kirchhof, inventor of the super engine.

This year the Olympic Games were held at Hurry-Up, Connecticut, nearly all the track events going to United States. The famous relay team which consists of Drac Lynch, Jutt Kizis, Ed Curtin and Leo Fiori broke the record by two minutes. Ed Kasheta also took a championship in the mile, coming a whole lap ahead of the rest. And who should we see but Don Schlichting breaking the record for shot put a second time. All of these men are continuing the great feats they started at Ellsworth.

Francis Boldway has formed a school to teach Ju Jitsu which promises great success.

The new Melrose Hospital has just opened with all the newest improvements. Richard Wall and Charles Ward now experts of the knife are chief doctors of this institution. Mary Plummer is the dental hygienist and Jeanette Bryant is one of the head nurses. George Hall is the very important X-Ray expert, with Jean Grindle as formidable assistant.

Agnes Whitehouse and Josephine Masiunas have started the Advanced School for Secretaries furthering the knowledge they have gained in office work. This also includes many other courses. Rose Balnius has become teacher of English, while Alice Rittlinger is a professor of history. Louise Osborn is a lecturer of fine arts and Wanda Panek, music instructor, is still going strong on hops. Shirley Enes has just been made chief instructor of home economics. Marie Reichle has now obtained the title of the world's fastest typist and has recently visited the school to prove she can live up to these standards.

The Pleasant Valley Brick Company was inherited by Eleanor Pola and is managed quite successfully (still making fine bricks).

Gordon Dimlow is now a prominent Hollywood producer with many great pictures credited to his name. He probably got his ability while acting in school plays. Now he is producing a movie featuring Ann Sheridan, who also shows her ability to dance.

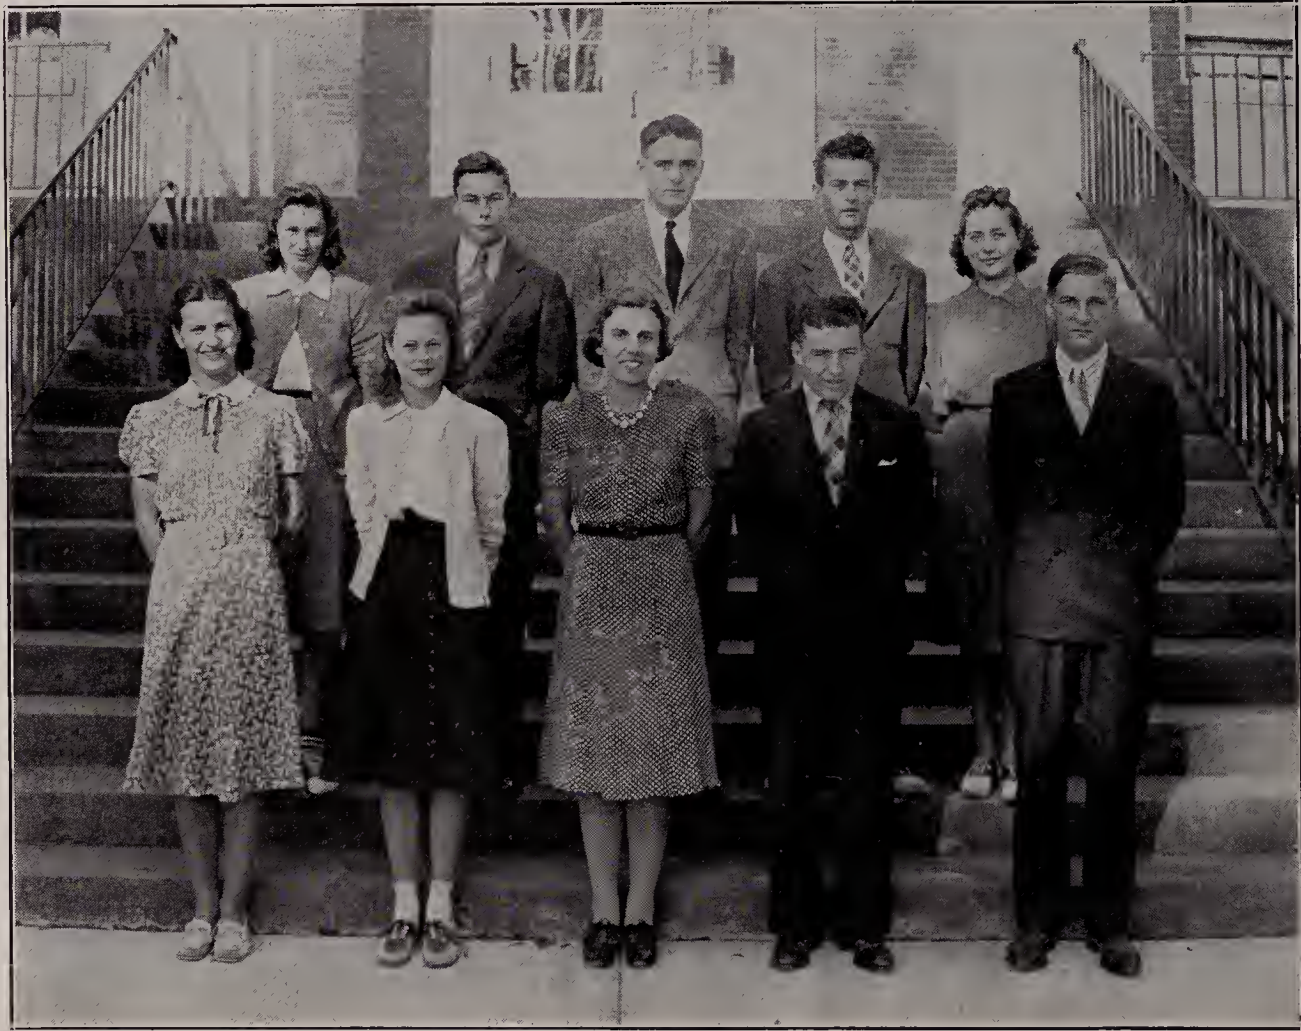

Bud Neelans has entered the fighting game and has taken the feather weight, light-weight and welter-weight titles.

The problem of training efficient Airlines Hostesses has recently been solved by Phyllis Busher and Jane Deming. They have an organization which gives girls actual experience.

Jean DeScalo started something when she started a night club composed entirely of girl entertainers. Mary Spilka is leader of the all-girl band which has Alice Zagorski as trumpeter. Harriet Slawecki as saxophone player and Mary Cadder as trombone player. Frances McCutcheon is director of dancing presentations and Evelyn Nilsson is caterer. Cecile Malone has earned her reputation as chef from many new dishes which are quite a novelty. Lottie MacKenzie is Cecile's assistant but learning the tricks of the trade very quickly. Well, well, the last but not least, Julia Krawetz and Lydia Muzykiewz who now lead the world as the most fascinating clothes designers yet known.

This was our final scene and we were well pleased with the crystal ball. We said goodbye to each other and left to go on our merry ways once more.

GIRLS' GLEE CLUB

In response to many student requests a Girls' Glee Club was formed under the direction of Miss Ford. Their first program for the school was the Christmas assembly devoted to carol singing by soloists and the group. This spring their meetings have been devoted to singing Negro spirituals.

First Row, Left to Right: Gordon Dimlow, Marie Reichle, John Pease, Barbara Burnham, Anna Mae Turner.

ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

The Athletic Association under the leadership of Miss Shepherd, Mr. Greer, and Mr. Reardon again sponsored the cheer leaders.

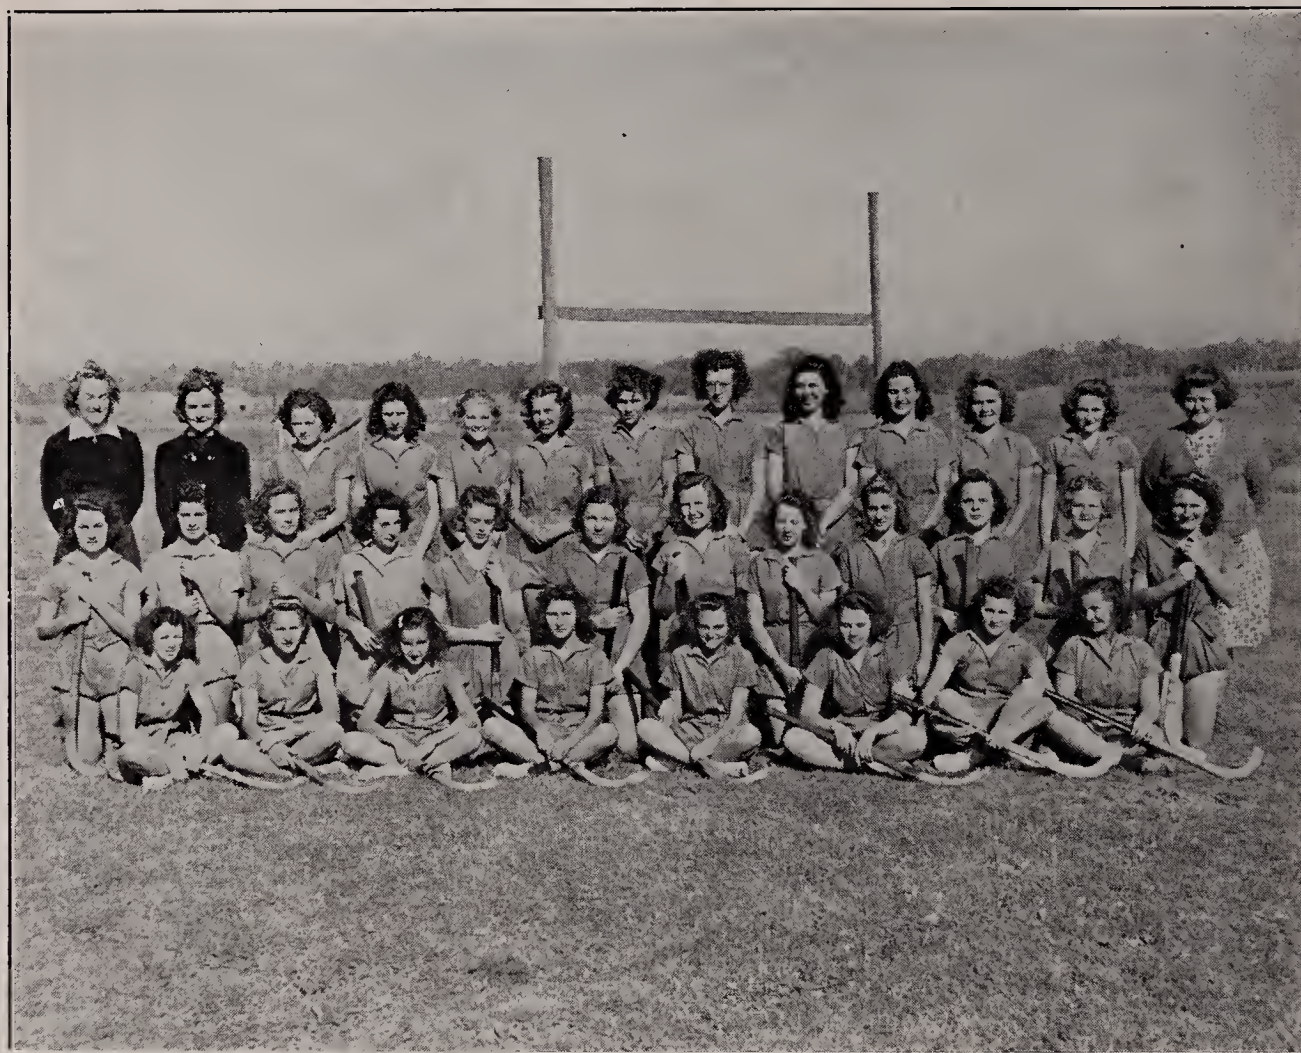

This year a benefit performance featuring Gene and Glenn was given for the benefit of the students injured in the athletic events. A donkey basketball game given in February not only aided the A. A. treasury but afforded fun for all.

CHEER LEADERS

The Cheer Leaders admirably represented Ellsworth High during the basketball season. Two new cheers, the clapping one, and the Ellsworth High cheer, were originated by these girls. Working together with the cheering section, the Cheer Leaders aided the boys in their successes.

GIRLS' FIELD HOCKEY SQUAD

Under the direction of Miss Shepherd, the Girls' Field Hockey Team had a most enjoyable season. Although they suffered several defeats, they are to be congratulated for their fine spirit and cooperation. Hats off to the Girls' Field Hockey Team!

First Row, Left to Right: Barbara Burnham, Alice Zagorski, Agnes Whitehouse, Mabel Sargent, Marie Reichle, Eleanor Pola, Miss Shepherd.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL SQUAD

The girls' basketball team under the supervision of Miss Shepherd enjoyed a most successful season, winning all fifteen of their games played.

SOCCKER SQUAD

The Soccer Squad cooperating with Mr. Greer again experienced a successful season. Despite injuries to three players, the team won nine games and tied one game.

Center: Mr. Greer.

Inside Semi-Circle, Left to Right: William Muska, Edward Grigely, Arthur St. Martin, Raymond Grigely, Stanley Waldron, John Pease, Sherwood Waldron, Francis Maizon, Gordon Dimlow.

BOYS' BASKETBALL SQUAD

For the third successive year Ellsworth captured the C-D Championship. The boys also won the twenty games on their schedule bringing Ellsworth's score to fifty-four straight wins. The first eight members of the team were rewarded by a trip to New Hampshire to see the New England Tournament.

TRACK SQUAD

This year the track squad, composed of thirty-five members, has won several meets, including a dual meet with Windsor High and a triangular meet with East Hampton and Simsbury.

At the meet for Connecticut schools held at the University of Connecticut, the squad took first place in five C-D events and placed second in two. The two-mile relay team, consisting of Dimlow, Cooper, Williams, and Kasheta, set a new record of nine minutes, thirteen seconds. Schlichting established a new shot put record of forty-four feet, five inches.

The team was placed fourth among all the Connecticut schools at the Wesleyan Indoor Meet.

Although the squad will miss the outstanding performances of the senior members, Lynch, Fiori, Rauschenbach, Kasheta, Huehner, and Schlichting, the interest of the underclassmen makes the future appear promising.

We Don't Claim There's Any Magic in

—Liberty Fertilizers—

We do claim that each year more and more farmers are using it.

Why not you, if not already a user.
